Cultprint is proud to present “Spray For Me”, the debut solo exhibition of Tazone. This showcase delves into the heart of graffiti and street art, presenting Tazone’s latest studio works.

In this exhibition Tazone explores the essence of graffiti and street art, celebrating the diverse styles and techniques of the art forms, while showcasing the versatility of a spray can as a tool for self-expression.

“Spray For Me” highlights the transformation of his practice, bridging the gap from his graffiti work on the streets to his first foray into a gallery space, allowing the two environments to compliment and pay homage to his background while creating a new collection of contemporary works.

The intention of “Spray For Me” is to cultivate a dialogue with the public about the practice of graffiti. From expressive abstract composition, to detailed figurative works, “Spray For Me” challenges preconceived notions by expanding the barriers of the stigmatized genre, fostering a deeper understanding for this dynamic form of expression.
